SPALDING shoppers have helped to raise almost £700 for the Parkinson's Disease Society by paying to have their picture taken next to Bridgestone's replica Ferrari F1 car.

The event was held at Springfields Outlet Shopping and Festival Gardens to mark the opening of BA Bush and Son's latest tyre depot on Fulney Lane North.

The event was a huge success and the team from BA Bush, Bridgestone and Springfields recently presented the money to representatives from the charity.

Russ De Barr, manager at BA Bush and Son, Spalding, said: "The opening event for our new depot was a great success.

"Experiencing the glamour of F1 for the afternoon was a real treat for shoppers and helped to raise a fantastic amount for charity.

"It was great for the team behind the event to meet and officially present the money raised and we hope to work together again soon."
